HOUSE BILL No. 1239

A BILL FOR AN ACT to amend the Indiana Code concerning criminal law and procedure.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. IC 34-30-2-151 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2003]: Sec. 151. IC 35-45-5-4 (Concerning public utilities or interactive computer services for refusing to provide a service, facility, or equipment after notice by a law enforcement agency under the gambling statutes).

SECTION 2. IC 35-45-5-1 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2003]: Sec. 1. As used in this chapter:

"By means of the world wide web" refers to placement of material in a computer server based file archive so that it is publicly accessible over the Internet using hypertext transfer protocol, file transfer protocol, or other similar protocols.

"Gain" means the direct realization of winnings.

"Gambling" means risking money or other property for gain, contingent in whole or in part upon lot, chance, or the operation of a gambling device, and accomplished by any means, including by means of the world wide web; but it does not include participating in:

4	presumed to be without value.
5	"Gambling information" means:
6	(1) a communication with respect to a wager made in the course
7	of professional gambling; or
8	(2) information intended to be used for professional gambling.
9	"Interactive computer service" includes the following:
0	(1) An information service, system, or access software
1	provider that provides or enables computer access by multiple
2	users to a computer server.
3	(2) An information service, system, or access software
4	provider that provides access to the Internet.
5	(3) An information service, system, or access software
6	provider that is operated or offered by a library or
7	educational institution.
8	"Internet" refers to the combination of computer facilities and
9	electromagnetic transmission media, and related equipment and
.()	software, comprising the interconnected worldwide network of
1	computer networks that employ the Transmission Control
2	Protocol/Internet Protocol, or any predecessor or successor

1	protocol to transmit information.
2	"Profit" means a realized or unrealized benefit (other than a gain)
3	and includes benefits from proprietorship or management and unequal
4	advantage in a series of transactions.

IC 35-45-5-4 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2003]: Sec. 4. (a) Except as provided in subsection (b), a person who: (1) knowingly or intentionally owns, manufactures, possesses, buys, sells, rents, leases, repairs, or transports a gambling device, or offers or solicits an interest in a gambling device; (2) before a race, game, contest, or event on which gambling may be conducted, knowingly or intentionally transmits or receives gambling information by any means, or knowingly or intentionally installs or maintains equipment for the transmission or receipt of gambling information; or (3) having control over the use of a place, knowingly or intentionally permits another person to use the place for professional gambling; or (4) engages in an activity described in subdivisions (1) through

1	(1) transports or possesses a gambling device solely for the
2	purpose of installing that device in a boat that is to be sold and
3	transported to a buyer; and
4	(2) does not display the gambling device to the general public or
5	make the device available for use in Indiana.
6	(c) When a public utility is notified by a law enforcement agency
7	acting within its jurisdiction that any service, facility, or equipment
8	furnished by it is being used or will be used to violate this section, it
9	shall discontinue or refuse to furnish that service, facility, or
10	equipment, and no damages, penalty, or forfeiture, civil or criminal,
11	may be found against a public utility for an act done in compliance
12	with such a notice. This subsection does not prejudice the right of a
13	person affected by it to secure an appropriate determination, as
14	otherwise provided by law, that the service, facility, or equipment
15	should not be discontinued or refused, or should be restored.
16	(d) When a law enforcement agency acting within its
17	jurisdiction notifies an interactive computer service that a service,
18	a facility, or equipment furnished by the interactive computer
19	service is being used or will be used to commit an offense under
20	this section, the interactive computer service shall discontinue or
21	refuse to furnish the service, facility, or equipment to the person
22	who is using or who will use the service, facility, or equipment to
23	commit an offense under this section. No damages, penalty, or
24	forfeiture, civil or criminal, may be found against the interactive
25	computer service for an act done in compliance with the notice.
26	This subsection does not affect the right of a person to secure an
27	appropriate determination that the service, facility, or equipment
28	must not be discontinued or refused, or must be restored.	W
29	(e) Whenever a law enforcement agency acting within its
30	jurisdiction notifies an interactive computer service that a site or
31	an area to which the interactive computer service provides access
32	is being used or will be used to transmit or receive gambling
33	information in violation of Indiana law, the interactive computer
34	service shall:

(1) give reasonable notice to the subscribers of its service; and

(2) use all technological means possible to block access to the site or area through its service.
